Way of Preventing Defense Stoppages*Will Not Act While His Mediation Board is Continuing Effort

Washington, June 6.—(AP)—President Roosevelt said today he was considering new steps to reduce labor stoppages in defense industries, but was not prepared to do anything now while the Defense Mediation Board was working on the west coast aircraft and lumber disputes.

Asked at a press conference flatly whether he was planning to do something about the North American Aviation strike and the controversial International Woodworkers union walkout, the chief executive said there was no statement today.

Asked whether he meant to emphasize "today," he told reporters they heard what he said.

Then, a reporter wanted to know whether he was considering anything to make labor aware of "new responsibilities" in the present emergency and the reply was he believed that could be answered in the affirmative.

The president volunteered a discussion of the strike situation by holding reporters back when they attempted to leave the room to spread important foreign news which he had earlier discussed.

The defense mediation board handed the soft coal industry a formula for labor peace last night, and at the same time fired back at Puget Sound lumber workers the set of peace proposals which strike leaders there have twice rejected.

Union Leader's Letter
President Roosevelt referred to a formal Brotherhood of Teamsters, Chauffeurs, Warehousemen & Helpers, in which the union solemnly pledged its support to the president and the nation and "wholeheartedly and sincerely" endorsed the president's address in which he announced an unlimited national emergency.

The president urged that newspapers publish this letter because he regarded it as an excellent sample of from 400 to 500 similar expressions sent to him by telegram and letter from unions of all sizes, including small locals all the way up to international unions.

He took this means to acknowledge all of the communications, which he said had been arriving at the White House since his fireside chat in which he said defense work must go on without labor stoppages pending settlement of disputes by the defense mediation board.

Informing that two workers groups in Tobin's organization also were on strike, in Pittsburgh and New York, the president said Tobin told him steps were being taken to end those disputes.

Bristling Attack
In the Puget Sound lumber workers strike, the mediation board's demand that C. I. O.'s International Woodworkers of America accept proffered settlement terms was backed up by a bristling attack on the lumber union officials by C. I. O. President Philip Murray, who also is a member of the board.

While the board merely reaffirmed its stand yesterday on the settlement terms and said it hoped "proper understanding" would lead to their acceptance, Murray sent a personal message.

Pioneer Dead

LOUIS CHEVROLET

One of the earliest of automobile racers and manufacturers, who passed away in retirement in Detroit this morning. Details below.

Louis Chevrolet,
Pioneer of Auto
Industry, Passes

Detroit, June 6.—(AP)—Louis Chevrolet, pioneer motorcar designer and in his earlier days one of the greatest of all racing automobile drivers, died at his home here today. He had been in poor health for several years and in retirement for nearly a decade. He is survived by his widow and one son.

Chevrolet was born in Switzerland on December 25, 1878. On May 20, 1905, he drove a Fiat racing automobile over a measured mile at Sheephead Bay, New York, in 52.8 seconds for a new world's record. He regarded as his greatest achievement, however, the designing and building of two consecutive Indianapolis speedway winners—in 1920 and 1921—the first driven by Chevrolet's brother, Gaston, and the second by Tommy Milton.

Gaston Chevrolet was killed at the Los Angeles Speedway in a collision late in 1920.

Louis Chevrolet built the first Chevrolet automobile in 1911 in cooperation with William C. Durant. The Chevrolet Company became part of General Motors Corporation in 1915.

Prior to his retirement Chevrolet was associated with the Stutz Automobile Company of Indianapolis.

Burial will be in Indianapolis next Tuesday.

Tragedy

Abbeville, S. C., June 6.—(AP)—A 16-year-old negro boy, who loafed around the Seaboard Railway shops here, often voiced a desire to run a locomotive.

Yesterday he boarded an engine, which has just been serviced, and started running it toward the station. The locomotive ran into a switch and turned over into a ditch after tearing up a long piece of track.

The boy died a few hours later of scalds and bruises.

Joliet, Ill., June 6.—(AP)—A Northwestern University coed who asked "what jitterbug sports a corset cover?" submitted a plan today to get hotel laundrymen out of hot water.

The American Institute of Laundering said hotel laundrymen had been criticized frequently for their antiquated laundry lists, some patrons abandoning their idea of cleanliness rather than attempting to classify their soiled garments.

Her plan is as simple as slipping on a bar of soap—just revise the lists her way.

Fire Drive Nine
Out of Hospital
Ten Return Today*Lincoln Hospital in Rochelle Emptied of Patients Last Eve

(Telegraph Special Service)

Rochelle, June 6.—Nine patients were taken from smoke-filled rooms in the Lincoln hospital Thursday evening; ten returned this morning, for in the interim Mrs. Edward Carls, who had been taken to the home of her brother-in-law, Frank Hewitt, gave birth to a son, and mother and baby were pronounced in good condition by physicians on their return to the hospital.

The nine persons, including three who were seriously ill, Mrs. Carls and three babies, were all there in the hospital when the institution quickly filled with smoke shortly after 7:45 o'clock last evening from fire which started either in the basement or in the x-ray room.

Power Goes Off

Electric power went off soon after the fire broke out, but the patients were removed from the darkened, smoke-filled halls and rooms by two men, Mike Pullin and Edward Carls, who were visiting their wives, and by motorists, who were attracted by Mrs. Marie Talcott, hospital superintendent, who ran out to the Lincoln highway in front of the hospital and called for them to stop.

Pullin, who discovered the fire, carried his wife and week-old daughter from the building first, and Carls, whose wife was in the delivery room when the fire broke out, managed to carry her from the building.

All patients were removed by stretcher and auto to nearby homes, where special nurses were caring for them during the night.

The patients were Mrs. Joe Castor who underwent a major operation Wednesday; Mrs. Joe Foster, who underwent a Caesarian operation Wednesday while giving birth to a son; Mrs. Frank Burchett, a medical patient; Mrs. Edwin Arne, a medical patient; Mrs. Francis Delmore of Monroe Center, Ill., who gave birth to a son last night; Henry Myroth, a surgical patient; Henry Rittmeyer, a surgical patient, and Mrs. Pullin and Mrs. Carls.

The cause of the fire had not been determined this morning nor had any estimate been made of the damage, mostly caused by water and smoke. It is considered probable that the greater part of damage will be in the x-ray room, where it is likely a great deal of film has been destroyed and equipment ruined.

Firemen under the direction of Fire Chief John Maxon, did not leave the hospital until 10 o'clock.

Story of Peace Offer
Nazi Inspired Says
President To Press*The War Today!

(Telegraph Special Service)
(This daily feature, conducted by DeWitt MacKenzie, is being written during his absence on vacation by Fred Vanderschmidt.)

A year-long battle of wits in the hot vapors of the East Indies has come to the point of crisis, and that crisis may very soon weigh profoundly in the course and scope of the second great war.

After performing a minor miracle of patriotic and persistent procrastination, big placid, H. J. Van Mook, Queen Wilhelmina's minister extraordinary at Batavia, today delivered his reply on Japan's trade demands to Kenkichi Yoshizawa, chief negotiator for the Japanese. In effect, the reply is reported to say this:

The Dutch are going to let the Japanese have only as much East Indian oil, rubber, tin and copra as their allies, the British and the United States do not need, and further, what the Japanese do get is to be limited strictly to the basis of Japan's past imports. That is none of it will go to Germany.

Japan, of course, will not like this at all, and Yoshizawa has come up to the crisis in an atmosphere of packed trunks and meaningful talks about the brink of precipices.

All this ties up with today's big headlines from the Near East, for if the British lose their middle-eastern oil supplies, the Dutch fields will be invaluable to their further conduct of the war, especially as it creeps east.

And it may affect the scope of the war because, if Japan cannot get by persuasion what she wants from the East Indies, she may feel obliged to go and take it, thereby colliding squarely with the British and the United States.

Japan considers that the Indies are wholly within her Asiatic economic sphere and actually what she expects from the Dutch is the right to take whatever she wants when she wants it. She says she is going to use these rich materials internally, but a high British economic warfare expert told me flatly the other day that Japan's capacity to Germany depended entirely on what she can get from the East Indies. Furthermore, Hitler has sent his prize economic front man, Dr. Helmut Wirth, to Japan in order to see that the Japanese keep German supplies moving and keep them moving fast.

The intriguing story of the Dutch-Japanese tug of war began, actually, on May 14, 1940, when the armies of General Henri Gerard Winkelman, bleeding and surrounded in the mud of the Netherlands water-line, sued for an armistice from the Germans. On that same day a Japanese envoy made his first tentative approach to the Dutch East Indies government.

Eventually, diminutive Ichizo Kobayashi came from Tokyo, to be greeted by the towering Van Mook and an honor guard of six.

With the Army in Tennessee, June 6.—(AP)—Scouts in search of the "enemy" as the third battalion of the 153rd infantry prepared for "battle" in Tennessee's war games came racing back as if they had met all the armed forces of Europe.

San Diego, Calif., June 6.—(AP)—Three fliers reported today that the navy were killed and one was injured in a mid-air collision of two planes from the heavy cruiser Chester near San Clemente island.

Naval authorities said the accident occurred late yesterday. The injured man was brought to the naval hospital here.

The deaths brought to 24 the number of naval aviation men who have died since Jan. 1 in accidents involving San Diego-based planes. In the last naval crash in which there were fatalities, April 16, three fliers perished when their torpedo bomber fell into San Diego Bay near North Island.

Cites Orders Sent to Nazis: Dutch
Rebuff Japs

(By The Associated Press)

Adolf Hitler and his axis partner, Japan, met twin rebuffs today when President Roosevelt spiked outcropping rumors of peace as German propaganda and the Dutch in the Far East rejected a major part of Japanese demands for war materials from the Indies.

Roosevelt declared that Ambassador John G. Winant, newly returned from England, had brought "not even a tenth cousin of a peace offer."

The chief executive said he, on his desk an order issued by the official German propaganda agency in Berlin, addressed to nazis in the United States, to spread word that Winant was bringing a story that Britain was all in and was talking peace.

Dutch-Japanese negotiations, officially described by the Japanese previously as teetering on "precipice," reached an impasse when the chief of the Japanese delegation said was "disappointing."

It was understood that the Dutch said politely but firmly that Japan's annual quota of imports from the Netherlands East Indies would not be enlarged, and that none would go to Germany. Rubber, oil and tin are the Indies' chief war products.

On Fighting Front

On the fighting front, British Middle East headquarters reported that RAF bombers attacked Italian planes yesterday at Aleppo airbase, in Syria—the first official British disclosure that fascist aircraft were in the French Middle East colony. One plane was destroyed, it was said.

Italian bombers were reported today to have attacked Britain's great rock citadel of Gibraltar, guarding the western entrance to the Mediterranean sea, while the Germans forecast aerial blows at the Suez canal in the east.

Linked with Wednesday night's heavy assault on the main British naval base at Alexandria these reports indicated that an axis campaign to bottle up the British Mediterranean fleet may already be in motion.

London radio said casualties at Alexandria numbered 150 killed and 200 wounded.

French Cabinet Meets

Meanwhile, France's high military chiefs, in a cabinet session at Vichy, were reported discussing U. S. Secretary of State Cordell Hull's blunt warning that French co-operation with Germany was "utterly inimical to the just rights of other countries."

With Vice Premier Admiral Jean Darlan presiding, the meeting was attended by Generalissimo Maxime Weyand, commander-in-chief of France's North African armies; Governor General Pierre Boisson of French West Africa, and Resident General Admiral Jean Esteva of Tunisia.

The question of empire defense as part of Adolf Hitler's new European order was also said to have been discussed.

Giving point to these deliberations, General Henri Dentz, commander-in-chief of French forces in Syria and Lebanon, issued a dramatic order to his troops:

"The command is clear. Defend our possessions and defend them with our own forces."

"There is nothing in this contrary to the honor and interests of France. You have heard me. You have understood me. I say no more. Now to your posts!"

Junior-Senior Prom Is Planned in Manner of Miniature Military Ball

The Dixon high school gymnasium was not its usual self at last evening, but under the skillful hands of an energetic committee became a perfect background for every upperclassman's dream of an evening of gaiety at a time when both gaiety and patriotism mean much. The big room—resplendent in red, white and blue—the becoming evening gowns of the young women, and their light-garbed escorts made an unforgettable picture at the event, a traditional goodwill gesture to the departing seniors.

Colored lights played over the scene, emphasizing the patriotic motif. Approximately 215 students and faculty members were present, dancing to strains of Earl Betourne's band.

Preceding the dancing, a banquet was served in the cafeteria upstairs. Red, white and blue streamers and balloons, white tapers, and miniature soldiers standing guard at nuptials repeated the all-patriotic theme at the tables. Red, white and blue stars twinkled on white programs at the covers.

Mrs. A. N. Boyd headed the kitchen committee for the evening. She was assisted by a general committee composed of Mrs. H. F. Walder, Mrs. Carl Goff, Mrs. Vernon Tennant, Mrs. Murray Wentling, Mrs. B. J. Frazer, Mrs. John F. Welch, and Mrs. P. O. Heckman.

Presiding in the dining room were Mrs. Winston Edwards, and a corps of P-T-A members, including Mrs. James Palmer, Mrs. Edward Langan, Mrs. A. E. Marth, Mrs. McKinley, Mrs. George McGraham, Mrs. Walter Knack, Mrs. Jack Kennough, Mrs. Harry Quick, Mrs. Robert Sanborn, Mrs. Clara Traynor, Mrs. H. F. Walder, Mrs. Burton Woodworth, Mrs. T. J. Miller, and Mrs. Royal Fitzsimmons. Miss Cleta White, faculty member, supervised the banquet plans.

Continuing the military ball theme, the banquet program was arranged in the manner of "Plan of Maneuvers" with Warren Walder, as officer of the day, presiding as toastmaster. The program included: Reveille—piano solos, Lyle Schoover; Major presentation of class scroll, Donald Valle; Captain—Acceptance of the scroll, Jane Goff, president of the junior class; Chief of Staff—Short talk, Superintendent A. H. Lancaster; Parade—Octet Eileen Finney, Nadine Galos, Trudy Previtt, Lois Fitzsimmons, Dan Nielsen, George Weigle, Harold Rhodes, and John Kennough, accompanied by Miss Carolyn Bergstedt.

Selective Service draft board—Prophecy, read by Bernard Frazer, Bill Shultz, and Georgia Jewett; Lieutenant—Toasts to the seniors, Bob Tennant; Colonel—Short talk, Principal B. J. Frazer; Taps—Vocal trio, "When Day Is Done," Georgia Jewett, Virginia Dodd, and Trudy Previtt, accompanied by Miss Bergstedt.

Moving pictures entertained in the auditorium for those who did not care to dance. Those in charge of the program included Miss Olga Eneoth, Miss Edith Heinle and Mrs. Lyle Stefford, faculty members, and Barbara Miller, Harry Quick, Nadine Galos, Ralph Kishbaugh, Helen Butlerbaugh, Mavis Westgar, Bud Bradford, Bernard Frazer, Georgia Jewett, Lorraine Pritchard and Amy Scholl, students.

The committee responsible for the decorations numbered Miss Alice Richardson, Miss Camille Kinsella, and Miss Trelys Rabeber, faculty members, assisted by Glenyce Mellett, James Palmer, Lila Lee Kirk, Bud Ives, Anthony Kowalewski, Charlotte Mueller, Dwight Fulmer, Virginia Dodd, Ned Sack, Mary Louise Poole, Don

JUNE SUNSHINE CONTRIBUTES ITS PART TO SUCCESS OF ST. ANNE'S TEA AT "HAZELWOOD"

A radiant June sun shown down on historic "Hazelwood" yesterday afternoon, doing its bit to make the garden tea of St. Anne's Guild a success. Contributing, too, to the success of the event was the generous hospitality of Mrs. Charles R. Walgreen (the log cabin, cliff house, and guest house, as well as the gardens, were open to the guests and the enthusiasm of some 350 tea-goers who thronged the grounds from 3 to 5 o'clock.

Choice blossoms from the beautiful "Hazelwood" gardens decorated the tea table, placed beneath the white pines which tower above the log cabin. The Guild officers, Mrs. P. J. Malay, Mrs. George Van Nuys, Mrs. Agnes Shumard, and Mrs. Robert Dixon alternated at the refreshment table.

Mrs. Malay welcomed the guests, and the Rev. Father R. L. French spoke briefly. Mrs. Edward Vaile introduced Mrs. Walgreen, who entertained with a 15-minute review of "Hazelwood" history.

The log cabin, the party-goers learned, was built by Governor Charters in 1937. As provided in the deed, the estate is always to be known as "Hazelwood," a name believed by the late historian, Frank Stevens, to have been chosen by Governor Charters in memory of a beautiful park in his native city, Belfast, Ireland.

Dipping back into the past, Mrs. Walgreen listed a number of famous visitors received at "Hazelwood," including Margaret Fuller, John Quincy Adams, William Cullen Bryant, Abraham Lincoln, and Stephen A. Douglas, spoke briefly of the old Kellogg Trail, an early stage coach route from Peoria to Galena, and mentioned construction of the Illinois Central railroad across the estate in 1841.

More recent visitors whose names appear on the guest record at "Hazelwood" include Carrie Jacobs Bond, Edwin Markham, Admiral Byrd, and many other noted persons. It was at "Hazelwood," Mrs. Walgreen stated, that the poet Markham wrote his famous ode to the Constitution for the late Charles R. Walgreen, and part of manuscript concerning Edgar Allan Poe.

Mrs. Walgreen concluded her remarks with an appropriate poem, "Who Made a Garden?" Afterward, the guests enjoyed the beauty of the garden paths and the houses.

Out of town guests were present from Rockford, Elgin, Joliet, Sterling, and Chicago. Mrs. John P. Devine was general chairman, and Mrs. Vaile arranged the program, and Mrs. Ragnar Erikson was in charge of ticket sales.

CALIFORNIA GUEST

Mrs. Milo Stratton, and her nephew, Roger Sullivan of Palm Springs, Calif., spent yesterday with relatives and friends in Crystal Lake and Woodstock.

Wa-Tan-Yans Are Recipients of Fiesta Favors

Fiesta appointments, sent from California by Miss Ruth Swain, set a colorful motif at last evening's scramble supper for Wa-Tan-Yans at the Loveland Community House. Candles were in the form of citrus fruits, a wooden bowl, trimmed with Mexican figures, contained a bouquet of roses, and fiesta favors were found at the covers.

Following the supper, the guests were entertained with a group of humorous readings by Mrs. Irene Fierheller of Freeport, who was the guest of Mrs. M. E. Potter, Mrs. Fierheller's skillfully-presented characterizations included "Changing Hours," "Mrs. Cohen at the Beach," and "A Woman Takes Part in a Pageant." Miss Retta Jean Keithley was at the piano for the song, "South of the Border," led by Mrs. John W. Mills.

Goodbyes were being said to several members, including Miss Keithley and Miss Mila Wahnke, who leave tomorrow for Estherville, Iowa to represent the Dixon chapter at the national convention of the organization, June 8-10, the chapter president, Miss Mary Alice Buchanan, who leaves Sunday for Chicago, and others who are planning vacation itineraries.

Miss Wahnke headed last evening's hostess committee. Assisting her were Mrs. M. E. Potter, and Miss Savilla Palmer.

GEORGE WASHINGTON SAID:

"Excessive partiality for one foreign nation and excessive dislike of another cause those whom they actuate to see danger only on one side, and serve to veil and even second the arts of influence on the other. Real patriots who may resist the intrigues of the favorite are liable to become suspected and odious, while its tools and dupes usurp the applause and confidence of the people to surrender their interests." From the Farewell Address.

A Thought For Today

Whatsoever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be diligently done for the house of the God of heaven.—Ezra 7:23.

The fear of some divine and supreme powers keeps men in obedience.—Burton.

Bureaucracy Destroying Local Self-Government

One of the gravest threats to our system of local government has been the steady, insidious encroachment of the federal government into matters which once were considered the sole concern of the several states. If this trend goes much farther, the authority of the states will be reduced to the vanishing point—all important power will be concentrated in Washington—and the theory of government laid down by the Constitution will be about as dead as Moses.

In a recent address, Governor Ralph L. Carr of Colorado, touched on a new proposed threat to the rights of the states. "Recently there was introduced into the Congress," said the Governor, "a measure intended to place the drainage basins of the Arkansas, the St. Francis, the Red and White rivers, under a regional authority by a law drafted along the lines of the Tennessee Valley Authority Bill."

"To a Board of three men appointed by the President of the United States and responsible only to him, absolute control would be given over the drainage basins of those four rivers, including every drop of water which falls therein."

"Under the Constitution, the states reserved the power to compact with respect to any question not national in its nature. By this act the states through which the rivers run might not compact without permission from the authority. No highway, no bridge, no ditch might be constructed without the consent of that board. All financial questions would be settled by provisions of the bill."

STEPHAN RETURNS

CHAPTER V

THERE wasn't much more. The letter was written on hotel stationery, and Stephan had not suggested any address to which she might reply. . . . Deborah read it again and again.

What it all amounted to, she told herself in the end, was—just nothing—except that he remembered her as a chance acquaintance who had been kind to him that summer, and that he felt he owed her the courtesy of this non-committal note.

One afternoon shortly afterward, Deborah went for a long walk among the dunes beyond the town. . . . She had often dreamed of bringing Stephan here if he came to see her. . . . He would love the chilling wind, the fury of the waves. . . . Not quite safe to think about that yet, though—not about Stephan.

She walked fast and furiously, as if she could run away from those forbidden thoughts which always crowded, waiting, in the back of her mind. . . . What, for instance, would all this mean to Stephan? Strange that he had not been recalled home!

Except to say casually one day that his visitor's permit in the United States would be good for several months more, he had never mentioned returning to Europe. It was one of those things he had not talked about. But the point of view of a soldier had crept out often in little involuntary ways.

TOWARD dusk Deborah struggled home through a fitful wind. On the wind came the tang of the sea; and on her lips was the taste of brine. A low scud of racing, dun-colored clouds seemed barely to clear the house-tops; and drops of moisture hung heavily on her tweed-covered shoulders and in her hair.

By the time Deborah reached the water front, the Harbor was half curtained off. Soon—unless rain came instead—the fog would be, not just a curtain, but an opaque wall of gray.

Over the bulkhead that reinforced the little park across the street from the Lovett house, spray tossed flecks of spume across the sandy turf, while above,

"Uncle Sam's hens" swooped and wheeled, protesting in raucous, angry cries. . . . And now, even two trim Coast Guard cutters had taken cover in the Harbor, their ships' bells adding their warning to that of the fog horn.

Altogether, Deborah decided, a day for a cheerily blazing wood fire. . . . But the fire refused to be cheerful. It refused even to blaze.

Deborah was choking with streaming eyes in a smother of smoke when she realized with a sense of ultimate insult that the draft chilling her sweated back came from the open front door. "Bridge!" she called. "Bad cess to you, you crazy Irishwoman! For Heaven's sake, shut that door!"

Bridge did close the door—but conspicuously not with her habitual belligerent bang; and when she announced, "A gentleman to see you, Miss Deborah," it was in the honeyed accents which Bridge saved for occasions of high social luster. . . . In the bosom of the family, Bridge's communications were carried on in a jovial bellow.

Deborah pivoted about to peer through the enveloping murk. Then, borne by a current of air from the entrance, the smoke swirled aloft, and she could see a little.

In the hallway, the formality of his precise little foreign bow discounted by the holiday flash of his smile, stood Stephan.

DURING the heartache of the past days, Deborah had often reminded herself that even if he would ever see him again, nothing could be quite the same. But now, standing there, he looked so like a small boy who has planned a tremendous surprise, but is not quite sure how you will receive it, that struggling to her feet, she ran toward him, hands extended, crying out, "Stephan! How splendid to see you! I didn't—"

She broke off, small cold fingers clutching at her heart.

Behind him, the imperfectly latched door had swung open again, and for a moment he stood against a No-Man's Land of misty sea and earth. From the gray smother, wisps of scud drifted, wreathlike, into the hall, and swirled about his bright bare head—as they had done that first night in California. Beyond, the fog-horn droned its unearthly warning.

Suddenly, like an ominous overtone, Deborah heard again in memory Angela's drowsy voice, repeating that fantastic fragment of fisherman's lore:

which would give the authority the right to expend not more than $150,000,000 and to issue the bonds of the United States government therefor, in order to acquire property either by purchase or by condemnation and to construct reservoirs, canals and hydroelectric power systems."

We are witnessing growing bureaucratic pressure to place all of our natural resources—mines, oil, water power, etc., under what can only be described as a Federal dictatorship. That move, if successful, would mean that the states could no longer regulate these resources in the light of local needs and desires. It would mean the loss of great tax revenues to local government. And, worst of all, it would mean the creation of a Federal bureaucracy with almost unlimited powers of patronage, backed by the United States Treasury. As Governor Carr said at the end of his speech, "If we are to retain our Constitutional theory of government, then the time has come to say so."

The Nation's Needs First

"I call upon all loyal citizens to place the nation's needs first in mind and action . . ."

From this day until the emergency shall have passed, that is the pillar of cloud by day, the pillar of fire by night, which the American people must steadfastly follow. By this standard every act, every thought must be judged—"the nation's needs first."

It is 24 years since the nation was called upon to think and to act so. The tumultuous twenties followed, with every man out for himself and the devil take the hindmost—with the result that the devil came perilously near getting us all. The tremulous thirties followed that, a period of bruised and bitter effort to put Humpty Dumpty together again. Now the fighting forties have roared in upon us.

It is just possible that if there had been, in the twenties, a little more thought of "the nation's needs first," the thirties would not have been so terrible. It is just possible that, had the thirties known a little more of such a thought, we would have recovered faster.

Now the dark shadow of war, falling across the world and ever nearer to our own homeland, dictates with inexorable force the single policy of salvation, "The Nation's needs first." What we would not do because it was wise and right, we must now do because it is our only hope of preserving all that is good in our political and social order.

Does a shipbuilder or airplane mechanic pause in his work and ask, "Can I get a little more out of this?" The American people want him to get justice, but always—the nation's needs first.

Does a manufacturer hesitate to "farm out" much of a fat government contract, is he reluctant to expand facilities or inclined to haggle over a profit? The American people want him to get justice, but always—the nation's needs first.

Business as usual, life as usual, these are set behind us. There is no longer any salvation, even for the most selfish, except in placing the nation's needs first in mind and action.

We used to believe that if every man looked out for his own, the common welfare would somehow take care of itself. If that ever was true, it is not true now. Today we must think of "all of us" before "myself." We all fall as individuals if our way of life fails.

Judge yourself long before others have the opportunity to judge you.

Measure every thought and act by that iron measuring-rod: "The Nation's Needs First."

Washington, June 6—A certain Oklahoma congressman has been introducing bills providing for a West Point of government service. A certain defeated Republican candidate for president has been looking around for a pin-nacle upon which to alight. Put two and two together and you may find that Wendell Willkie will be chairman of the board of a modern civil service college. The congressman may be prexy. The school, which has caught their fancy, is a well-known preparatory school in Maryland, and that is no "campaign oratory."

Willkie's present academic love came after he had previously drawn a couple of blanks. A New York law office is no pinnacle from which to speak. Feckers were put out to Leland Stanford University, which needed a president, and to Columbia with the hope that Nicholas Murray Butler might be about ready to resign. Neither one bit.

Reports that the Germans have submarines based on Dakar are believed by no one here. Or put it this way, either the nazis have no submarines based on Dakar or else our Consul there is a little balmy from the heat because he can't find any. It is true that the submarines are preying on British shipping off the west coast of Africa, but where they are based no one is quite sure. The Germans are thought to be using either French territory southeast of Dakar or Spanish Rio de Oro, north-east of Dakar.

In spite of the president's mention of Dakar and the groups of islands off the African and Spanish coasts, congressmen claim to have it from the president that we will make no move outside the western hemisphere this summer. Don't forget that the Germans are going to have a tough time getting to Dakar too, as Dakar itself resembles an Island. There are no land routes between it from anywhere else in Africa.

War department experts have been poring over a batch of pictures showing a brand new tank catcher which the Germans have developed. This fancy little gadget, which will accompany German panzer divisions, has some fascinating new features. One is a removable armor shield in front. The trick to this is that if the Germans find they are fighting tanks speedier than their tank chasers, they can take off the heavy armor shield, and put a lighter one on, thus increasing to speed. German military magazines claim this will guarantee that their tank destroyer will be 10 per cent faster than anything it meets. Also it has a 75 MM anti-tank gun and a very special anti-aircraft gun which resembles our famous bomb-sight in reverse. The A-A gun has a gyroscopic mounting The gunner merely sights through a little telescope which moves as easily as a rifle and pulls the trigger. The gun not only gets the range but figures out how far ahead of the airplane it should point to hit it.

In the next couple of weeks the war department is going to deluge industry with a flood of contracts. At this writing the department has nearly $4,000,000,000 for which it has not let contracts. On the other hand, the 36 regional offices of the Office of Production Management have lined up hundreds of sub-contractors who are just waiting. (It is difficult to subcontract old contracts.) Cries of "hurry up" from the Opm will soon be answered by contracts in

The "Miss Deborah" and the unctuous deference in Bridge's manner were assumed purely for guest consumption. Behind Stephan's back, Bridge's left eye winked—nudging, prompting, as it used to do in Deborah's school days: "Mind yer manners, child!" Deborah heard herself saying obediently, "Of course, Stephan. You know I'd love to have you." "But really, I had no idea," he said hastily. "I can't—"

"Ah, sure an' 'tis no trouble at-all," Bridge dismissed his objections with a hospitable wave. "An' now, Miss Deborah, I'll be makin' the Master's room riddy for the Captain."

"I say—" Stephan, Deborah was puzzled to see, wheeled to look with a kind of startled consternation after Bridge's broad back—"but how did she know—" She broke off, frowning, shrugged, and lighted a cigaret.

"That you rate the 'Captain'?" Oh, Bridge can spot gold braid and shoulder straps even when they're not in the show case. I suppose she's developed a kind of sixth sense for rank from working for seagoing families most of her life. To Bridge, having "a fine finger of a fightin' man" as a guest is the next thing to entertaining royalty. . . . But does it matter?" "I am flattered, naturally," he smiled; but his eyes were all of a sudden guarded, watchful.

The harassed steel industry is complaining bitterly in Washington because the railroads are trying to order large numbers of freight cars now. Steel-makers say they should have done it two years ago.

Railroads say they didn't have the cash. Scarcity of shipping to bring lumber from the west to the east coast will make the railroad situation worse. Result probably will be rigid government priorities on freight car loadings.

COMPOSITE PICTURE

If you want to know just how the seven high school teams of the Rock River conference rate in the three major sports this year in a composite picture you could figure it this way: (as we did)—adding the victories in football to the victories in basketball and allowing 7 points to the winner of the track meet, six to runner up and so on down to one you'd get Rock Falls with 20 points, Rochelle and Oregon each with 17, Polo with 13, Mt. Morris with 10, Morrison with 9 and Amboy with five.

GAMES NEXT TUESDAY

Freemans vs. Borden.

United Cigar vs. Three Deuces.

Although for a time early this season the boys who like softball were walking around with their chins dragging, everything turned out pretty well and last night a June moon looked down on a couple of good ball games at the Airport diamond as the league launched its summer season with high hopes. Top-form pitching by Woodvatt stole the show as he allowed only one hit. Fordham and Williams also did some fine chucking.

In the opening game the Nachusa boys, minus some of their best players who were over at the high school prom, bowed to the strong United Cigar store team, 12 to 2, and in the curtain-dropper the Reynolds wire club snipped the Three Deuces with a score of 7 to 6.

In the United Cigar store victory the lads managed by Al Spinden and coached by John Lange scored their first run in the second inning when Murphy singled, went to second on a passed ball, to third on an infield play and stole home. With a single by Davis and Coakley in the fourth frame the United scored four more runs. In the same inning the Nachusa boys counted two runs with four walks and a single by Pinch-hitter Zimmerman.

Six Runs

Six runs scored for the United in the sixth with singles by Snyder and Davis, three walks, a double by Dingman and a triple by Bugg.

Woodvatt was the winning pitcher and he allowed only one hit in seven innings for a cracker-jack performance. Myers and Fessler did the hurling for the Nachusa team and off their combined work the winners rapped out 11 hits.

In the nightcap game the Three Deuces scored first with two runs in the initial inning when Reilly was safe on the shortfielder's error and Bishop doubled and romped home after outfield catch.

With Bishop safe on an error in the third inning two more runs put the Three Deuces in a 4 to 0 lead in the third inning as Anderson got the first home run of the season. Sweeney followed with a single but was unable to complete the circuit.

Reynolds began hacking at the scored in the fourth inning when two runs scored on a double by Page, a triple by Miller and a single by Woldridge.

In the fifth inning Reilly was safe on an error again and scored later for the Three Deuces' fifth run.

Reynolds scored three runs in the same inning when Walker, Miller doubled and Wright singled. A few scattered errors paved the way.

B. Drew singled for the Three Deuces in the sixth and scored on an error. Fordham was safe on one error and scored on another for Reynolds.

The winning tally was counted in the seventh when M. Walker was safe on an error, went to second on a walk and scored on an error.

Fordham, the winning pitcher, gave off only eight hits, walked one and struck out eight. Williams was on the mound for the Three Deuces and he permitted only seven hits, walked three and struck out three.

RED SOX ARE LATE STARTERS

By JUDSON BAILEY

Associated Press Sports Writer

Recognition already has been given the Philadelphia Athletics as a late-blooming miracle of the spring, but the A's should move over to make room for the Boston Red Sox.

Joe Cronin's gilt-edged American Leaguers have done a lot of aimless wandering, some of it in the second division, since winning five in a row at the start of the season.

Just nine days ago they slipped to sixth place, the mighty Jimmie Foxx benched himself because of a batting slump, and the future was clouded with uncertainty.

Yet today they are up in third place with a brand-new five-game winning streak and are only three games behind the pace-making Cleveland Indians, whom they crushed yesterday, 14-1.

Mickey Harris, the 23-year-old New York City southpaw who is about to be drafted into the army, has provided perhaps the biggest spark. He started the present streak by pitching a two-hit shut-out Memorial Day against the New York Yankees. Yesterday he smothered the Indians with six-hit pitching.

The Sox backed him with a 16-hit assault on four Cleveland hurlers. Ted Williams hit his ninth homer of the year. Don DiMaggio collected his first. Cronin tripled with two on. Foxx doubled with the bases loaded—and the firing went on all afternoon.

It was the worst rout of the year for the Indians, who didn't score until the eighth and wouldn't be in first place today except that the Athletics took care of the Chicago White Sox, 9-3.

The A's reeled off six runs in the second inning on four bases on balls, a triple by Wally Moses and doubles by Sam Chapman and Frank Hayes. After that Jack Knott checked the Sox with seven hits and the A's treated themselves to another three-run spurge in the eighth.

Tagged Decision

The Detroit Tigers took a ragged 5-4 decision from the New York Yankees in 10 innings to complicate the American League race further by bunching no fewer than six teams within a range of four games.

The St. Louis Browns sent Luke Sewell off to a good start as manager by whipping the Washington Senators, 4-2, for a sweep of their three-game series and their longest winning streak of the season. Dennis Galehouse kept the Senators shut out until the eighth and earned his fourth victory even though needing help in the ninth.

Rain washed out the National League program.

Max Schmeling hopes war will end soon so he can meet friends in U. S. again

New York, June 6.—(AP)—Max Schmeling, former heavyweight boxing champion who is now a nazi parachute trooper, says he hopes the war ends soon and that he "can get together again" with his friends in the United States.

In a hospital ward set up at the former American college outside Athens, Schmeling is recuperating from a stomach disorder and from effects of fighting in Crete, Harry W. Flannery, CBS correspondent, reported last night in a broadcast from the Greek capital.

"His illness probably had been due to drinking some chocolate abandoned by the British," Flannery said Schmeling told him in an interview. "The milk in it may have soured."

Schmeling said he had lost 25 pounds from the fighting and his illness, but that he expected to get a leave shortly and join his actress-wife on a farm outside Berlin, Flannery reported.

In describing his descent on Crete early May 20, Schmeling was quoted as saying:

"We swooped low before we jumped out, then we opened the chutes right away, and, as a result, there were only about 12 seconds that we could be shot at."

Sports Roundup

New York, June 6.—(The Special News Service)—Broadway is saying Arthur Donovan won't be in there when Joe Louis goes against Billy Conn. Arturo seems to be in Dutch since the Buddy Baer fight. . . . One of floral pieces at the Lou Gehrig funeral came from President and Mrs. Roosevelt—a swell gesture. There isn't a thing wrong with Jimmy Foxx that a few lusty base-hits won't cure. . . . We're still sticking to Byron Nelson to come through at Fort Worth. . . . Fellows who knew Bud Taylor when he was going good say he earned nearer $1,000,000 than $100,000, as we had it. . . . Anyway, old Bud would be glad to settle for the latter figure now.

Busy Man's Newspaper

Bill Corum of the N. Y. Journal-American and Don Dunphy will be the broadcasting team for Mike Jacobs' fights beginning with Conn-Louis when the Mutual chain takes over. A lot of folks are going to miss good old Sam Taub, but he'll continue to pair with Bill Stern on "Spot" fights throughout the country via the NBC lines. . . . To date this column has received 178 tributes to Lou Gehrig (both prose and poetry), which gives you an idea how the old Iron Man rated all over.

Edward W. Mitchell, Durham, (N. C.) Morning Herald: "Before the Cleveland Indians can hope to win the American League pennant, they are going to have to plug up the Dykes."

Sports Cocktail

How - they - do - things - in Texas Dept.: The green on the 13th hole of the National Open course was laid down only six weeks ago. . . . Flint Rhem, the Old Cardinal pitcher (remember when he once downed a couple of quarts to keep Grover Cleveland Alexander from doing the same), is trying a comeback with a South Carolina semi-pro team. . . . Ruppert stadium at Newark is the only baseball orchard in the country with a cocktail bar. . . . Your agent is getting a fine response from Monday's call for help. Keep 'em coming, boys and girls, and remember this is a national emergency.

Report of Women's Club

Mrs. Mildred Holt, retiring president of Amboy Women's club has just issued the following report of the club's activities during the past year.

The Women's club as an institution has enjoyed a rapid and steady growth. Starting as a community idea with a somewhat restricted outlook, it has by constantly multiplied organization, grown to a point where it affords a wonderful opportunity for the exchange of ideas, and for concerted action, among women from every part of the country. Most women are by nature enthusiastic. They bring to any problem the to examine closely and the to act. They are possibly prone to think at times a little more deeply than some of their brothers, even though feminine powers of reasoning may sometimes be criticized as not always logical.

At least it may be said that women may be trusted to be found pretty generally on the right side of any question affecting the home and the life involvement of the nation, and because of this they have been urged at their convention from time to time to devote more of the time allotted to club work to the study of this they have been urged at problems with a view to making their influence felt by concerted action whenever the opportunity is presented.

Perhaps the people of our community would be interested in knowing something concerning the work of our Women's Club here in Amboy.

Our club officers for 1940-41: president, Mrs. O. C. Holt; first vice-president, Mrs. O. W. Funkhouser; second vice-president Mrs. C. G. Buckingham; recording secretary, Mrs. C. A. Lee; corresponding secretary, Mrs. F. A. Wedlock; treasurer, Mrs. Roy Long; auditor, Mrs. Eno Aschenbrenner; parliamentarian, Mrs. W. T. Holladay.

Our club motto: "First Women, then what you will."

Our object: To be of service to the community by bringing a bit more of comfort and happiness into the lives of the handicapped and underprivileged.

Our theme: Cooperation. To carry out the program of work of the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs.

Our program is planned around three points namely: Study, service and sociability.

1. Study, lecture, "Implications in democracy's education." Lecture on international relations.

Literature: Christmas stories, "The Folly of the Wise Men" and "Human and Nature Bible Literature; verse readings, "A Laugh A Day." Art lecture and display of international dolls. Hobby show, by members of our own club. Display and discussion of "Ceramic Art in Staffordshire." Illustrated lecture and slides on "Wild Flowers of This Region." A travelogue illustrated by colored slides displaying scenes of the west, Canadian Rockies and Lake Louise. Lecture on "National Youth Administration." Educational talk on motion pictures accompanied by education films. Therapy by Byron Chastlen.

2. Service. A philanthropy—contributed to (a) headquarters fund, (b) penny art fund; (c) Illinois society for prevention of blindness; (d) Illinois Children's Home and Aid Society; (e) Park Ridge School for Girls; (f) Foundation Fund; (g) Red Cross; (h) Tuberculosis Seals.

B. Public welfare. 1. Sponsored the filling and distributing of 27 very generously filled boxes of food for the needy at Christmas time; 2. Aided eight needy children in securing much needed new clothing at Christmas time; 3. Purchased some garments for a needy elderly lady; 4. Sponsored the furnishing of free milk to 56 needy children in Amboy schools for a period of two months; 5. Contributed $12 toward our local nursery school's upkeep; 6. Ten books were presented to the public library from members of our club; 7. Contributed to Red Cross drive. Many of our members assisted with the drive; 8. Aided in the publicity and sale of Tuberculosis Seals; 9. Our senior and junior clubs sponsored the drive for infantile paralysis prevention in this community and raised $50.00; 10. We donated a gift of a screen to our public hospital.

C. Education—(a) Cantata given by boys and girls from our local high school under direction of Miss Elizabeth Lee; (b) Travel talks; (c) Educational films; (d) Lectures; (e) Book reviews; (f) Educational displays; (g) Educational literature.

3. Sociability—1. We have used our townpeople students from our local high school, people from nearby towns on our programs as much as possible; 2. We set aside an evening meeting for the purpose of entertaining our junior club members, members of the faculty of the Amboy schools and their wives and our librarians; 3. We cooperated with our state radio chairman and three of our own members presented a program over Station WROK in Rockford; 4. We have a luncheon in May; 5. We have a picnic in July at which time the new officers preside.

I wish to take this opportunity to express my thanks to all members of the club, members of the community, the merchants and anyone who has in any way in any time contributed toward the success of our club year.

Leaders Inspire Youth

Men who made our nation great inspire the youth of today to make the most of their opportunities and to live the American way. Since 1910 nearly ten million American men and boys have had the benefit of Boy Scout training.

Active appeals for needed development of Camp Lowden as a permanent all-year campsite for practical operation of the major program of the Boy Scouts of America throughout the Blackhawk Area Council, are under way in six counties today. O. August Hanke, president of the council announced this week.

Committees have been formed in nearly all communities of Winnebago, Ogle, McHenry, Boone, Lee, and Whiteside counties under the direction of Harold R. Grahm, chairman of the Camp activities committee, together with Vice Presidents Stanton K. Smith, Hugo Weyrauch, and Dr. John Nightingale. Commissioner Eugene H. Woolsey, Treasurer Wayne H. Diehl, and others.

Chairmen of the Major Groups and the minimum goals sought in the communities are as follows:

Dixon, F. H. Hanson, $3,000; Sterling, H. Cary, $3,000; Morrisburg, H. H. Rendall, $1,000; Rockford, Steven Hefner, $1,000; Mt. Morris, J. W. Watt, $1,000; Oregon, Judge Philip Nye, $1,000; Rock Falls, Jacob Cantlin, $500; Prophetstown, John Adams, $500; Polo, Grant Berman, $500; Amboy, C. E. Yale, $300; Fulton, Earl Snyder, $300; Paw Paw, $100. In communities not mentioned, goals have not yet been definitely announced.

Considerable rivalry among the sections outside the city of Rockford is expected to enliven this campaign, as the officials have broken down the camp needs into specific projects, many of which may be memorialized, it is announced.

The central lodge and all-purpose building, which is estimated to cost $4,000, water facilities estimated at $2,000, several troop wash-houses at $125 each, fire-fighting equipment at $100, troop fire-places at $25 each, are among some of these projects. Even a boat or a needed canoe may be designated by a community or by an individual, a prospectus recently mailed to all potential subscribers shows.

Mr. Hanke said this week that preliminary reports of the campaign in Mt. Morris which opened last week, indicated pledges of $625 on a goal of $1,000. These came from so-called "Big Gift" prospects only. Geographical canvass now is under way and the goal is expected to be reached soon in Mt. Morris, he said.

Mr. Grahm, commenting upon the campaign in the counties adjacent to Rockford where a campaign opened Monday night for five agencies of the Rockford Community Fund, including the Boy Scouts, said:

"I believe that the spirit shown by outstanding citizens in Mt. Morris in aiding the Boy Scouts to make full strength attendance possible at Camp Lowden this summer will be duplicated elsewhere throughout the Blackhawk Area Council, for as Dr. James E. West, chief executive of the Boy Scouts of America has said: 'Scouting is Camping.' Through patrol camping by troops the American democratic way of life is learned by actual practice. Because we heretofore have lacked our own camping facilities, our camp attendance in this area has been among the lowest in America, but we now have an opportunity to have our own camp for at least twenty years or more, when present facilities may have become outmoded or will have to be renewed. It is up to us to develop this handsome property at Oregon. I feel confident our many friends in Rockford and throughout the six counties will not fail us in the emergency."

To Display Flag

During this period of full and "unlimited national emergency" it is very appropriate that all citizens of Rochelle and community, join with other communities of our nation in the commemoration of "Old Glory", our emblem of Americanism and of Freedom.

The week of June 8-14 has been set aside by our Mayor as Flag Week. This commemoration is not for the piece of cloth, it is that for which the flag stands; a united citizenship, free from class hatred and racial and religious intolerance; a national solidarity; true Americanism.

This year is the third annual National Observance of Flag Week. Governors of forty-six states issued appropriate proclamations in observance of Flag Week last year. Communities large and small all over the United States will observe Flag Week this year by flying the flag every day, by holding patriotic meetings and parades, by making special announcements through the press and radio, by having special speakers at dinner meetings, etc.

As chairman of Flag Week Observance in Rochelle, appointed by the Mayor, I am suggesting:

1—That all business houses in downtown Rochelle fly the flag all during the week.

2—That special observance be made by any and all patriotic and civic groups in regular or special meetings.

A. H. Maginnis,

Chairman, Flag Week Observance.

GEMS OF THOUGHT

PURPOSE

What men want is not talent, it is purpose, not the power to achieve, but the will to labor.

It is not enough to be busy; so are the ants. The question is: What are we busy about?

—Thoreau.

The question for each man to settle is not what he would do if he had means, time, influence, and educational advantages, but what he will do with the things he has.

—Hamilton Wright Mabie.

When you are so devoted to doing what is right that you press straight on to that and disregard what men are saying about you, there is the triumph of moral courage.

—Phillips Brooks.

Unselfish ambition, noble motives, and purity—these constituents of thought, mingling, constitute individuality and collectively true happiness, strength, and permanence.

The secret of Baker's success is constancy to purpose.

—Disraeli.
